

Staying home, limiting our travel

The Daily COVID-Safe Triangle

- To minimize risk of catching and spreading the virus, there is no substitute for staying home.
- Always wear our masks whenever we're in public.
- If we must go out, we should limit ourselves to three or fewer COVID-safe activities each day. Each of us choosing safe options if and when we leave the house will help us crush the virus.